

Survey on human trafficking and modern slavery

All Africa Conference of Churches is carrying out this anonymised survey, with the support of our ecumenical partners, to determine the Church Leaders' (and FBOs) perceptions of human trafficking and modern slavery in Africa.

We are grateful that you have agreed to give us a few minutes of your time to share your views with us.

Results of this survey will help the AACC, its members, and its partners to shape future awareness raising campaigns relating to human trafficking and slavery.
