PRAYER ALERT FOR CENTRAL AFRICAN REPUBLIC

Dear brothers and sisters in the ecumenical family,

Advent and ecumenical greetings from the All Africa Conference of Churches (AACC).

We are deeply concerned by reports of heightened tensions building up to the presidential and legislative elections slated for 27th December 2020 in Central African Republic. In the midst of the tension are frictions between rival candidates and increasing threats by armed groups that still control some part of the country despite a peace agreement signed almost two years ago. The AACC has long sought to accompany the church and people in countries in their search for sustainable peace, justice and democracy.

Concerned about peace, and as a way of expressing our solidarity with brothers and sisters in the Central African Republic, the AACC invites you to commit the Central African Republic in prayers. Please pray for;

- ✓ peace to prevail before, during, and after the elections
- ✓ all the democratic processes as a road to peace to run smoothly
- ✓ all the political leaders, legislative and presidential candidates to abide to the leading of the Holy spirit and avoid any usage of violence as they compete
- ✓ cessation of hostilities between armed groups
- ✓ the religious leaders' community in the Central African Republic to remain prophetic as they engage with the different stakeholders in their search for peace.

May the God of life hear our petitions and supplications for Central African Republic.

“I urge, then, first of all, that petitions, prayers, intercession and thanksgiving be made for all people—for kings and all those in authority, that we may live peaceful and quiet lives in all godliness and holiness.” 1 Timothy 2:1-2

Sincerely Yours in Christ,

REV. DR. FIDON MWOMBEKI
GENERAL SECRETARY
