

AACC MASTER OF THEOLOGY IN ECUMENICAL LEADERSHIP SCHOLARSHIP GUIDELINES

AACC invites application for an accredited, full time, exclusively residential Master of Theology in Ecumenical Leadership (MTEL) hosted at Mindolo Ecumenical Foundation (Kitwe, Zambia) for maximum one year.

AACC will provide scholarship, preferably partial, or full with demonstration Of high talent and financial need

1. Scholarship Application Form available at: www.aacc-ceta.org, www.spu.ac.ke
2. Academic certificates and testimonials and in particular Bachelor of Theology or Divinity, Religious Studies or Ecumenism and equivalent (s) from a recognized institution of higher learning.
3. An application letter,
4. Recommendation letters from church and current/former institution of higher learning
5. Three (3) recent passport photos,
6. A copy of National Identity Card or valid Passport.

Note: Selection Criteria:

1. Fulfilment of the strict admission requirements of St. Paul University (including verification of certificates by the respective authorities.
2. Only those below 40 years will be considered.
3. Gender parity will be pursued, therefore female applicants are strongly encouraged to apply.
4. Regional balance to cover the AACC constituency.
5. The amount an applicant contributes to the costs will have an impact on decision to award scholarship .
6. Applicants ability to buy a return ticket to Mindolo and back during the time of studies.
7. Scholarship will not cover personal travels, holidays, laptops and any costs related to accompaniment by family members.

Click here to apply

Qualified candidates and beneficiaries will be notified on time before the commencing of the programme.

Applications to reach admission office (admissions@spu.ac.ke) and AACC Theology and Interfaith Relations (theology1@aacc-ceta.org) by 15th February 2025.